MidSouth Donates to The Georgia Children's Museum

Macon, GA (August 20, 2008) – MidSouth Federal Credit Union Branch Manager, Doyle Crider, recently presented a donation to the Executive Director of The Georgia Children's Museum, Mary Cay McCullough. The donation makes it possible for 20 families to have an extended stay at The Ronald McDonald House of Middle Georgia. Family members are also granted access to The Georgia Children's Museum during their stay. The Georgia Children's Museum is located at 382 Cherry Street, in downtown Macon. According to the Museum, they offer new types of educational models that reinforce the educational achievement of all children. The Georgia Children's Museum is open for field trips, after school programs and summer camps.
