MidSouth Donates to D.T. Walton, Jr. Foundation

Macon, GA (January 17, 2008) – On January 17th, MidSouth FCU Marketing & Development Specialist, Melissa Methven, presented a donation to the immediate past President of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Craig B. Jackson. Mr. Jackson is the Co-Chair of the D.T. Walton, Jr. Scholarship Dance which will be held on March 14th. The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity is a chapter comprised of dedicated professional men who are committed to helping the disadvantaged improve their quality of life by uplifting the less fortunate. They provide scholarships to the youth and sponsor social programs such as blood drives, food drives and talent programs. This donation was made to help the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity in their ongoing efforts.
