MidSouth Recognizes Houston Teacher of the Year

Warner Robins, GA (July 30, 2008) – On July 28, 2008, the Houston County Board of Education acknowledged the Teachers of the Year for the system at their Opening Session. The event was held in the Miller-Murphy-Howard Building at the Georgia National Fairgrounds and Agricenter. Houston County High School teacher, Alan Bowers, was recognized as the 2008-2009 system wide Teacher of the Year. MidSouth Federal Credit Union, originally chartered as Bibb Teachers Federal Credit Union, provided a certificate to Mr. Bowers to show their appreciation for his dedication to teaching.

MidSouth Federal Credit Union was one of 34 other sponsors attending the Opening Session. A total of 37 teachers and 5 employees from around the school district were also recognized for their excellence. In addition to presenting a gift to the Teacher of the Year, MidSouth FCU also donated a gift card and lanyard to the 42 Teachers and Employees of the Year.
