

Contact: Melissa Methven
Marketing & Development Specialist
melissam@midsouthfcu.org
(478) 475-7813

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MidSouth Awards Contest Winner

Irwinton, GA (June 18, 2008) – At Wilkinson County High School’s recent Underclassmen Awards Program, Wilkinson County High School teacher, Mr. Jason Payne, presented awards to the 4 finalists for his Book Essay Contest. Mr. Payne wrote the book “33 Things the Young Black Professional Male Needs to Know to Avoid Relationship Disaster.” The grand prize winner won a brand new Dell desktop computer and printer, compliments of MidSouth Federal Credit Union. MidSouth FCU Marketing & Development Specialist, Melissa Methven, was on hand to present the winner with the computer.

Pictured left to right: Wilkinson County High School teacher and author, Mr. Jason Payne; 1st place essay winner, Akeem Shinholster; 2nd place essay finalist, Pierre Jones; 4th place essay finalist, Gavin Harris; and MidSouth FCU Marketing & Development Specialist, Melissa Methven. Not pictured, 3rd place essay finalist, Bryant Merrel.

##